Please note that EC membership is required to enter the show. Any competitors that do not have an EC Bronze competitive sport license may apply at the show for Temporary sport license.

Passports – Not required.

GENERAL RULES AND INFORMATION

1. The management reserves the right to decide any point not covered in the rules and to correct any error or make any alterations that may be necessary in the prize list. EC rules and regulations will be followed.
2. The management reserves the right to cancel or combine any class not filled to satisfaction; whereupon exhibitors will be notified as soon as possible after close of entries.
3. Inhumane treatment of a horse will not be tolerated. Violation of this rule, at the discretion of the organization committee, will result in disqualification and forfeiture of fees.
4. Any exhibitor using a wrong number, or having no number, may be excused or disqualified from the class, at the judge's discretion.
5. Exhibitors are warned that any act of discourtesy or disobedience to the officials on the part of the owner, handler or rider, will disqualify the horse, and result in forfeiture of entry fees for subsequent classes. Management reserves the right to remove a groom, handler/ rider and/ or horse from the show, without being liable for compensation.
6. No judge shall be approached with regard to any decision during the time he is judging or is about to judge. Penalty will be disqualification from the show in its entirety.
7. The medical aid fee covers the cost of the medical aid on site. The fee does not cover personal expenses incurred by the injured party in the event of an injury or transportation by ambulance.
8. No person other than officials, staff on duty, and the judges of the classes may enter the competition rings without permission of the tournament management. Competitors are allowed in the competition rings only when competing, when the course is open for walking or during scheduled schooling rounds.
9. Dogs must be on a leash at all times. For safety and sanitary reasons, no dogs will be permitted in the schooling area, show rings or show office.

HARD HATS AND ATTIRE

1. It is mandatory that all persons mounted on a horse anywhere on the competition grounds wear protective headgear secured with a safety harness permanently affixed to the helmet.

2. ALL persons, including foreign competitors in EC national classes, riding over fences anywhere on the competition grounds MUST wear protective headgear secured with a safety harness affixed to the helmet. It is required that the protective headgear meets the ASTM (American Society for Testing Materials) or BSI (British Standard Institution) approved helmets of conservative colour, with safety harness correctly fastened, at all times while mounted on the competition ground. Failure to comply with G102.1 in the exercise area and/or the competition arena will result in the following penalties:

- 1st violation at competition – warning
- 2nd violation at the same competition: disqualification from the competition and forfeiture of all fees and prize monies.

3. Junior competitors must wear properly fitted, approved protective headgear, with a safety harness correctly secured at all times while mounted on the competition grounds. Approved headgear must be certified by SEI or another testing body that meets the American Society for testing Materials (ASTM) standard or the British Standards Institution (BSI) standard. Juniors not complying with this rule will not be allowed to compete in competitions that require approved headgear.

HORS CONCOURS

Hors Concours Pertaining to Jumpers -Article G601

“Hors Concours” entries maybe accepted at the competition committee’s discretion but are subject to the same rules as a regular entry.

“Hors Concours” may not participate in any jump off.

Hors Concours entries will follow the last regular entry in the class.

A horse or pony that has competed “Hors Concours” is not allowed to compete subsequently in the same ring on the same day.
